Welcome to Cavalier Attitude!

Hello and welcome to my zine: Cavalier Attitude. As the masthead says, this zine focuses on the Old School Revival (OSR) in fantasy role-playing, including OSRIC, BECMI, 1E and 2E gaming.

In this fourth issue, I will be showcasing a new class I have been working on for OSRIC and OSR clone games, the enlightened warrior monk. This player character, unlike the monk of the 1E days, is based on a medieval European model, like Robin Hood's Friar Tuck.

I also present a new race, the Shadow Gnomes. This evil sub race of gnomes inhabits the deep, dark

Under-Realm of my campaign world. They appear here in these pages before debuting in my upcoming module, Mines of Mayhem.

This issue also contains our standard columns: a social media roundup; an Old School art showcase; a group of six pre-generated player characters; and an update on my recently published books: SR3 Knightly Tournaments, SO8 Sea Hag's Folly, and SCA II.1 Cavalier Attitudes, the prior issue of this zine!

Lastly, once again we feature an exclusive one-page OSR adventure!
